

COLLEGE OF HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES

LaVae M. Hoffman

Neurodiversity:
Shifting Perspectives
for a Changing World

Michael Beers

Disability History, Pride, and Action

Nina Ghiselli

The Dyslexic Shuffle: Deepening Your Understanding of Dyslexia

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 2024 8AM TO 5PM

REGISTER NOW

Network with the community of families and individuals in the South Suburbs who are interested in fostering educational and vocational success for young adults with disabilities.

Connect with local resources for people with disabilities and their families at our exhibit hall and round table events. Learn about navigating health and education systems; college, employment, and independent living; self-advocacy and self-care in college; enhancing student experiences and improving student outcomes; achieving post-secondary career and employment goals.

- 8am: Opening Session
- 10:15am-3:45pm: Educational sessions and panel discussions on these topics and more:
 - Sensory Processing Sensitivity
 - Thriving With Neurodiversity
 - Self-Regulation and Mindfulness in the Classroom
 - Self-Advocacy in College
- 11am- 2pm: Grab-n-go box lunch (included in registration)
- 8am-4pm: Exhibit hall and demonstration spaces
- 4pm: Stand Up Comedy Show featuring The Comedians with Disabilities Act (included in conference registration, available to purchase separately)

Who Should Attend: Educators, Speech-Language Pathologists, College Advisors, Occupational Therapists, Physical Therapists, Social Workers, School Counselors, Nurses, Educational Administrators, Health Care Administrators, Service Coordinators, adult Students, Parents and Caregivers, and all other Supporters of young adults with disabilities. CEUs are available!

For registration questions, please contact continuinged@govst.edu or 708.534.4099.

PLEASE SCAN FOR
FOR FURTHER
INFORMATION, EVENT
REGISTRATION, AND
VENDOR REGISTRATION

