

Lorraine M. Tyson, Trustee

Lorraine M. Tyson is a shareholder at Greenberg Traurig, LLP. She focuses her practice on corporate finance, privatization and public finance transactions. She represents insurance companies, pension funds, banks, finance companies and other institutional investors on corporate finance transactions.

Ms. Tyson has acted as bond counsel, underwriter's counsel, remarketing agent counsel, issuer's counsel or letter of credit counsel in connection with financings by the City of Chicago, the State of Illinois, the Regional Transportation Authority, the Illinois Finance Authority, the Illinois Housing Development Authority, Cook County, Illinois and the Board of Education of the City of Chicago. Lorraine has advised clients on various types of tax-exempt and taxable bonds, including general obligation bonds, alternate revenue bonds, limited tax bonds, debt certificates, revenue bonds, Build America bonds, qualified 501(c)(3) bonds, student housing bonds, recovery zone facility bonds, recovery zone economic development bonds, variable rate bonds and current and advance refunding bonds.

Ms. Tyson received an LLM in Taxation from Northwestern University School of Law, a Juris Doctorate from the University of Illinois College of Law and a Bachelor of Arts from Northwestern University. She has been a member of the National Association of Bond Lawyers' Board of Directors since 2015. She was a member of the Internal Revenue Service's Advisory Committee on Tax Exempt and Government Entities (ACT) from 2013-2015 and a member of Women in Public Finance's Board of Directors from 2013-2015. Ms. Tyson has been listed by the Leading Lawyers Network as a Leading Lawyer from 2013-2017 and as one of the Top 100 Women Real Estate-Related Lawyers in Illinois in 2017.