So You Want to Run for Your School Board?

Saturday
November 8, 2014
8:30 a.m. - Noon

Eisenhower Cooperative
Administrative Offices
5318 135th Street
Crestwood, IL

Learn about the role of the school board member in governing successful school districts. Attend this free workshop. Our panel of school law and school finance experts will discuss:

- Standing for Public Office: general and specific considerations
- Ethics and School Law: board member liabilities, conflicts of interest, nepotism, trust, communication, and other matters
- School Budget and Finance: local, state, and federal funding resources, stewardship of assets, impact of regional economic decline

Learn how effective school leaders can enhance student growth, support financial stability, and contribute to the quality of life in a community. Attend this workshop to see if school board service is for you!
