2015 Commencement Invitation International Students

This fillable form is used to request letters for visitor visas of commencement participants.

Eligible commencement participants are graduates from the previous year, and Spring and Summer potential graduates for the current year.

Participants must be in good financial standing with the University. Letters will not be produced until participants are in good standing. The deadline to request letters is April 15. Information will be communicated to your GSU email.

Participants receive four (4) tickets for the ceremony.
