Internship Resource Guide
The following websites will get you started on internship information.

http://govst.experience.com Career Services has established this website for students to post their resume and look for job vacancies from prospective employers. Students are required to sign into the GSU portal to gain access to the site and alumni should contact Career Services for access.

www.monstertrak.com This is an excellent website. Also houses internttrak.com. Students can go online to post a resume and search for a variety of jobs and internships throughout the country.

http://internships.wetfeet.com/ This site is also known as internships.com, a service of wetfeet.com. Employers can use this site as a search engine for prospective candidates, and students can search for internships and post a resume.

www.summerjobs.com Students can use this site to find a great seasonal job both locally and abroad, in addition to gaining the experience of living somewhere else in the country or the world.

http://rsinternships.com/ This is another great website for students and employers alike. Post your resume and find available internships/jobs all over the United States.

http://www.idealist.org/ Worldwide information about non-profit organizations includes the services that are provided and volunteer and internship openings that are available.

http://www.cie.uci.edu/prospective/ Called the Center for International Education website, this page connects students to many international organizations and opportunities to work and study abroad.

http://www.internjobs.com/ This website provides opportunities for both employers to post prospective jobs and students to post their resumes. Also, many articles and resources on internship topics are available.

http://www.findinternships.com/ FindInternships.com is a comprehensive online database of active internships and co-op programs. The site was created to help students find relevant opportunities for the summer, fall, winter, and spring seasons. The site also helps students better understand what an internship is, why they should have one, and how to apply for one. The site is 100% free to use.

http://www.indeed.com While this website is very popular for job searches, internships have also become an important part of this database website. Additional career information is also available as well.
