Community Readiness

Each community has shown different readiness for the Logan/Mason ROSC. Logan County's professional and lived-experienced recovery community have shown their willingness to participate with the Logan/Mason ROSC's efforts. Some of Mason County's professional and lived-experienced recovery community have shown their willingness to participate with the Logan/Mason ROSC. We are continuing to bring new stakeholders to the table and working to bring back previous stakeholders. Mason County is slowly growing their acceptance to recognizing the recovery community.

Logan County Community Readiness

- Increase in recovery community meetings.
- Logan County organizations coming together to provide permanent housing, emergency, temporary and transitional housing for veterans and all others in need. Stakeholders will work together to combine available resources to help these individuals in the community.
- Recovery in Action Subcommittee has been increasing numbers with people with lived experience participating.
- Oxford House has opened a Men's house in Lincoln. They are looking to open a Women's house in the near future.
- Increasing the interest in Peer Recovery Specialists trainings.
- Custom Cleaners has allowed to have a Harm Reduction Vending Machine in their building so there is access to Naloxone, Fentanyl Testing Strips, and Xylazine Testing Strips.
- Logan County Health Department has created a Harm Reduction table that is in their entrance way for people to anonymously grab various items and materials.
- Harm Reduction Vending Machine was placed at a local business for the community to use. The Logan County Health Department has a Harm Reduction table.

Logan County Priorities for Expanding ROSC in the Community

- Advocate to Oxford House to bring a women's house to Lincoln.
- Work with local agencies to help get local transportation options or support to help people in recovery get to treatment.
- Continue to promote CRSS and CPRS to increase awareness, workforce, and peer recovery services.
- Continue to increase stakeholder representation at the ROSC Council.
- Continue to focus on person-centered language, engaging in community events, and disseminate information through multiple outlets to help educate the community to break stigma.
- Start having in-person meetings to help increase stakeholders and PLE's at ROSC Council meetings.

Mason County Community Readiness

- Started up first peer recovery support group.
- Increase of PLE's in Mason County.
- Mason County Library has a dedicated shelf for Harm Reduction items.
