

McDonough/Fulton County ROSC Asset Mapping FY24

McDonough County

Kate Mallory

ROE 26 Director

Early Beginnings Mental Health Consultant

339 South Johnson Street

Macomb, Illinois 61455

kmallory@roe26.net

Kate Mallory is a valuable asset to the MFCI ROSC. Kate created and hosts a monthly inter-agency council meeting for McDonough County and the surrounding areas. To complement the IAC meeting, there is also an email thread that keeps everyone connected and shares resources. Kate and her team promote and encourage all forms of recovery in all areas.

Sally Vigezzi

Community Service/Diversity/Recruitment Officer

Macomb Police Department

120 S. McArthur St.

Macomb, Illinois 61455

309-833-4505 ext. 8253

svigezzi@macombpolice.com

Sally Vigezzi is essential to the MFCI ROSC. Sally attends most meetings and events. Sally works with many people in the community and seeks ROSC coordinator's opinion/advice often. Sally helps refer and inform people to the recovery lifestyle. She has also encouraged the Chief of Macomb PD and a detective to attend some ROSC meetings and they have.

Maggie Brooks

North Central Behavioral Health Systems

Director of Clinical Services – West Central Region

mbrooks@ncbhs.org

Maggie Brooks is such a vital component of the MFCI ROSC Council. Maggie attends every monthly ROSC meeting. She has had the MFCI ROSC Coordinator present to her staff many times. Her staff reaches out to Coordinator quite frequently. Maggie has helped refer specific people for services and guidance. Maggie is extremely recovery orientated in many ways.

Sonja Schmidt

AOD Counseling Specialist/UCC Counselor

Alcohol and Other Drug Resource Center/ University Counseling Center

Western Illinois University

Memorial Hall, First Floor

1 University Circle

Macomb, Illinois 61455

309-298-2457/309-298-2453

Se-schmidt@wiu.edu

Sonja Schmidt does great work at WIU. She helps people who are attending WIU find necessary help. Primarily dealing with students, Sonja reaches out to MFCI ROSC many times to help refer students and staff who are unfamiliar with Macomb, Illinois to recovery resources that are not available at WIU.

Amber Clark

Executive Director, Samaritan Well, Inc.

1306 Maple Avenue, Macomb, Illinois 61455

309-837-3357

Amber Clark is doing amazing things in Macomb. She is the director of a “homeless shelter”. This shelter is vital to the recovery community in Macomb and the surrounding areas. Macomb does not have a sober living facility. However, many people utilize Samaritan Well, Inc. as a type of “sober living”. I have seen many people start and sustain their recovery journey with the help of Amber and her staff. MFCI ROSC has helped Amber’s clients find in-patient treatment and Amber has helped MFCI ROSC PLE’s find housing.

Mandy Kreps

Director of Family Support Services

IRIS System/Data Manager

339 South Johnson St.

309-575-3253

MKreps@ROE26.Net

Mandy Kreps and MFCI work together frequently. Mandy has been essential to the development of recovery in McDonough County. Mandy has referred many people to the MFCI ROSC. Mandy has helped implement IRIS in our area and helped MFCI ROSC be a member of IRIS. In the past few months, MFCI ROSC has received 5 referrals on the IRIS System.

Tonya Davis

As I Still Rise (NFP)

331-264-0736

asistillrise@gmail.com

Tonya Davis and her NFP As I Still Rise are remarkable key players in the recovery community in McDonough and Fulton County. Tonya has a very similar vision, mission, and goals as that of MFCI ROSC. Tonya attends most MFCI ROSC meetings and has partnered with MFCI ROSC for a few events.

Fulton County

Susan Tisdale

Carle Health Care/Duney's Defense

309-267-5995

susan.tisdale@carle.com

Sue Tisdale is a community educator and harm reduction specialist throughout the state of Illinois. Sue is very recovery orientated. She distributes naloxone and facilitates trainings and many places in many counties in Illinois. Sue has referred many people to MFCI ROSC. Sue also partners with MFCI ROSC for events and trainings.

Jacey Downing

Clinical Manager of Fulton County

North Central Behavioral Health Systems

229 Martin Avenue

Canton, Illinois 61520

309-647-1881

jdowning@ncbhs.org

Jacey is essential to Fulton County and the MFCI ROSC. Jacey works with Fulton County Drug Court and is the primary contact for the program. She has referred many people to the MFCI ROSC. She has also requested resources, literature, and suggestions from MFCI ROSC.

Sarah Nottle

Director of Ministry and Operations

The Salvation Army 360 Life Center of Canton

176 S 1st Ave

Canton, Illinois 61520

309-647-0732

Sarah.nottle@usc.salvationarmy.org

Sarah Nottle and Salvation Army 360 of Canton and Fulton County contribute greatly to the MFCI ROSC. They are focused on recovery in all aspects. They have an intern that does peer recovery support. Tasma Palmer just completed her Peer Recovery Support Specialist training through the Governors state. Sarah has sought guidance from MFCI ROSC to try to get faith based recovery started in Canton.

Lieutenant Chris Ford

Fulton County Jail Administrator

268 W Washington Ave

Lewistown, Illinois 61542

cford@fultonco.org

309-547-2277

Lieutenant Chris Ford is a great contributor to the MFCI ROSC. Chris has reached out several times to MFCI to seek help with getting jailed people into in-patient treatment options. Recently, Lt. Ford also invited PLE's into the jail for recovery meetings.

Alissa Thorne

Sexual Assault Counselor

WIRC Victim Services

309-333-1934

alissa@wirpc.org

Alissa Thorne contributes to the MFCI ROSC in many ways. Alissa attends most meetings and has worked to collaborate with MFCI a few times. She has also invited MFCI ROSC to present to WIRC (Western Illinois Regional Council) and inform the staff on substance use and how it affects people and families. Alissa has also requested information on treatment and recovery options.