Pastor Jones re-emphasized the main principles of a ROSC including Person Centered approach, Holistic approach, Hope and Empowerment, Collaboration and Cooperation, and Cultural Competence.

Topic Discussion

Today's meeting topic was Understanding Recovery from Addiction. Bryant Wynne started off the discussion with a powerful recant of his own history with addiction. He shared how his low self-esteem and lack of identity led him to using drugs as an outlet. He had to hit his version of rock bottom before he reached out for help. He was able to get that help and support from church. He began his healing journey with God in the forefront and though it's a daily struggle he has not regretted his change of life for one second. Sandy Mays spoke on how his life started off with the exact opposite. He was strongly rooted and grounded in church but the pressures of life weighed on him heavily and he was searching for outlets. He found himself down a dark path and found the light in a private encounter with God. He has been sober for 2 ½ half years and is hyper focused on helping others. Pastor Jones then opened the floor for a Q&A, where many guests were able to ask questions and share their own experiences.
