Item	Discussion	Timeline & Responsible Person(s)
Welcome & Introductions John	John opened the hybrid meeting by welcoming both in person & Zoom attendees. There were several new attendees so introductions and a brief overview were provided.
Old Business John	John reviewed the minutes from the January 8, 2024 meeting and included some of the 2023 highlights for Recovery.
New Business John	Resources will continue to be distributed at local food pantries. The Washington County Better Together meeting will be 2/26 and Sandy advised that members from TASC as well as local law enforcement plan to attend. We continue to try to locate a place to hold Gambler’s Anonymous meetings that will be led by Mary. Sandy advised Shea had offered the RB conference room as a possible meeting location and Rebekah added that the Chester library may also be an option. We would like to hold the next SUDS event in late Feb/early March in Sparta and then do another SUDS in the Fall in Percy. March 18th is the proposed opening date for the Recovery Community Center (RCC). Specific details are still being determined.	Carissa will get SIHF materials to John. Carissa will make sure someone from SIHF attends John will speak with Pastor Fogerson John will call Sparta laundromat

	John advised that work is ongoing with the goal of forming a drug court alumni group. Some funds may be available. This group would be specific to Washington & Perry counties. Rebekah shared information about the Child Care Assistance Program CCAP through Children's Home and Aid. Suggested that Recovery participants MAY be eligible for child care benefits when attending meetings and activities. Must be an educational component. A call was placed by John R 2.5 to receive more information. Preparations are happening to move into and begin setting up the Recovery Community Center at the ComWell Red Bud campus. John is reaching out to the local hardware store to ask for a paint donation. March 18 anticipated opening. Flyer soon.
Guest speaker	Jessie shared her testimony & experience as an ARI graduate
