Old Business

Madison mentioned that Take Action Today resource centers are back open and operating as usual. The importance of organizations such as TAT was truly realized during the closures.

The PJRC Strategic Plan is due at the end of June and is now being finalized. A special thanks to Sherry Smedshammer for dedicating her time to assist with developing the plan.

Alexis Adams reported that the “Nerd Out for Recovery” event on 6/14/2024 was amazing, and we are eagerly looking forward to next year.

Kelly Corner noted that there is a program available for anyone who wants to quit smoking and that the Courage to Quit is within reach.

Torie Patton discussed the purpose of the Narcan ONEbox's, emphasizing their importance in providing life-saving medication to reverse opioid overdoses. We have two boxes that need placement and are seeking information on suitable locations.

Torie Patton also announced TAT's new weekly Crystal Meth Anonymous Meeting and the Shine (Trauma) Group. The Shine Group meets on Mondays from 5:00 pm to 6:30 pm, while CMA meets every Tuesday from 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm.

Dorie Warren mentioned the services offered by the TAT Carbondale office and the need for volunteers. If anyone knows of potential volunteers, please reach out.

AA meetings are held on Monday nights from 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm at the Carbondale Office, located at 809 W. Main in Carbondale. The office also serves as a cooling center from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Madison told the council if anyone knows of any potential locations in rural communities to set up PJRC pop-up events, please contact her.

PJRC will randomly select five people who completed the Survey Monkey and announce the winners on the PJRC Facebook page.

Madison shared some statistics about the PJRC for the year. A copy will be provided with the meeting minutes.

Christina Manchen mentioned that Terri Tate, the CCBHC Linkage and Engagement Provider at Centerstone Carbondale (Terri.Tate@centerstone.org), would be a great contact person for the council moving forward.

Johanna Gonzalez mentioned letters will be sent out to gather ideas about how to celebrate Recovery Month in September, The State is trying to get as many people involved as possible.
