

GOVSTATE TITLE IX REFERENCE SHEET

GovState Title IX Main Webpage: <https://www.govst.edu/TitleIX/>

Visit this webpage to learn general information about GovState’s Title IX Compliance Program, download copies of GovState’s Anti-Sex Discrimination (Title IX) Policy – Policy 78, Title IX Procedures (including the Grievance Procedures, Reporting Procedures, and Response Procedures), and find contact information for GovState’s Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Title IX Coordinators. Subpages provide additional information, including a glossary of important Title IX-related terms and a descriptions of the various roles in the Title IX compliance process (including Responsible Employees).

GovState Title IX Pregnancy and Related Conditions Webpage: <https://www.govst.edu/titleix-pregnancy/>

Visit this webpage for information about GovState’s efforts to ensure equal access to University programs and activities for students and employees experiencing pregnancy and/or related conditions. The top portion of the page includes all the information (plus more) an employee is required to provide to a student that informs the employee that the student is pregnant or experiencing a related condition.

GovState Title IX Reporting Webpage:
<https://www.govst.edu/report-sex-discrimination/>

Visit this webpage to learn about and access available options for reporting sex discrimination (including sex-based harassment). Responsible Employees are encouraged to use one of the electronic reporting options to fulfill their reporting obligations. Complainants, if they choose to make a report, are encouraged to utilize whichever options makes them most comfortable.

GovState Electronic Reporting Options:

Internal Title IX Reporting Form (Maxient)
https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?GovernorsStateUniv&layout_id=21

(must have GovState login credentials to use this form)

The Compliance Hotline

- Call 1-855-252-7606 or
- Online to www.Hotline-Services.com

(when prompted, tell the Hotline you are affiliated with Governors State University)