

The Role of the Church in Social Justice

Hosted by A.C. Green

A.C. Green

Saturday, September 24 at 6:30 p.m.
The Center for Performing Arts

Panelists

Reverend Stephen Thurston II, Executive Pastor of the Salem Baptist Church of Chicago

Reverend Bryant Warren, CEO of Victory Community Coalition

Anthony AJ Hudson, Emmaus Community Church

Join us for a powerful panel discussion prior to RED SUMMER. This diverse panel of church and community leaders will explore the role of the church in social justice and activism.

No reservations for pre-show panel required.

Doors open for seating at 6 p.m.

See

Saturday, September 24 at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, September 25 at 2 p.m.

Tickets: $29 - $39

Save 20% with PROMO CODE: COMMUNITY

A modern musical crafted by MPAACT co-founders Shepsu Aakhu and Shawn Wallace, along with Andrew White, a co-founder of Lookingglass Theatre Company... Red Summer is a large canvas upon which is painted an epic moment in Chicago History. Set during riots of 1919, our story centers on two soldiers—one black, one white—who return from the battlefields of Europe only to find themselves caught in the violence of a city that is struggling to accommodate the Great Migration, a global pandemic, a downturn in the economy, and long-standing ethnic tensions. Having fought on the same side in “The Great War,” they are now pitted against each other as their friends, family, and neighbors wage block-by-block warfare, and the city’s ethnic enclaves rage and burn.

CENTER FOR PERFORMINGARTS
Governors State University

CenterTickets.net
708.235.2222