Making A Scene allows the viewer to peer into the artifacts and moments of an imaginary world created by Kathy Weaver. Her characters, the “Bulleheads” and the “Winged Ones,” struggle with the grey area between good and evil. Making a Scene is a saga of archetypal figures in conflict reflecting the real world.

The exhibition will be on display through August 2 – due to student staff changes at this time of the academic year, please make an appointment by emailing: jstevenson@govst.edu to plan your visit.
