

Fact

Our 21st century world is filled with new options for sharing information – Facebook, Twitter, and Skype are changing the way we communicate – but it is still necessary to learn writing skills so that the words on the computer screen have meaning.

Student Progress

The faculty monitors and evaluates student progress continually. A more detailed statement of the standards and processes followed by the secondary education faculty is available in the Secondary Education Undergraduate Student Handbook.

Conditional Continuation

The faculty may permit a student to continue conditionally. In such cases, faculty reviews of the student's records identify evidence that the student will likely be successful in the program. The status of all students allowed to continue under conditions is reviewed by the faculty each term, and the students are informed in writing of the conditions necessary for them to be transferred to good standing status.
