

Erin Gutiérrez is the Family Development Center's Executive Director and is a member of GovState's Sustainability Committee. With an academic background in Geology and Early Childhood Education, she is passionate about connecting people of all ages to the natural world through STEM learning. Beyond her professional work, Erin is a Lark's Song Certified Coach, a published nature photographer, and an enthusiastic tree-hugger.