

Dr. Somi Nagaraj, DNP, MSN, RN, CONTL, CSSGB, is a highly dedicated and results-focused transformational leader with an extensive career of over three decades in the healthcare industry. – Her transformational leadership style has the capacity to provide cost-effective solutions that meet superior quality standards. – Her energetic and dynamic personality with over 30 years of practical strategic leadership skills. – Her expertise is in providing hands-on leadership and direction for program development, performance improvement, and patient satisfaction, as well as mentoring/coaching nursing staff and students for clinical and operational excellence, with a growing market share.